

Living Coral and solpuri Nature as the model

Living Coral has been named Pantone Color of the Year 2019 - A warm coral red with a life-affirming golden undertone that takes its inspiration from nature. According to Pantone this colour "reflects the warmth, nutrition and protection of coral reefs for the marine life".

Colour experts see Living Coral as a clear statement in settings and decor. When arranging this colour, for example, with white and light woods, Living Coral creates a happy, bright and uncomplicated look. One who wonderfully heralds the spring and summer. And in combination with black or grey shades and dark woods, this hue looks theatrical and stimulating. In addition, Living Coral works wonderfully with blue and green tones.

So which place is better suited than your garden to introduce this cheerful, life-affirming, energy-giving and gently revitalizing coral red where the greenery of your plants will create a beautiful backdrop and set this colour off perfectly?

Get this great trend at home with fabrics from the current solpuri fabric collection and discover here how you can best style your green living room with solpuri outdoor furniture in this natural soft shade.

And the new BASKET Dining Chairs are also looking particularly stunning with their anthracite-coloured aluminium frame and custom-made seat cushions in coral red. Beautifully matched with the dark grey ROCK Table from the current solpuri collection.

To create a spring feeling at home, use this shade with lots of white and light woods. The LAGOON Daybed by solpuri shown here is a fantastic example of how this beautiful effect can be created. The seat cushion is upholstered in Bombay Rose and complemented with throw pillows in Calcutta Grey-Rose and Pearlwhite.

For a slightly fancier combination, just combine Living Coral with a soft ocean blue. This looks very stylish. Simply mix different shades of blue of CARO Lounge seat and back cushions with coral-coloured throw pillows.

Last but not least, accessorise your outdoor space with shimmering brass or copper or white marble items. And do not forget to add a few splashes of coral and white to your planting theme: Peony Coral Sunset, Peony Coral Charm, Quince, Camellias or Tulips would all work brilliantly.
