

INTO THE BLUE with solpuri

Whether in fashion or in the interior – The colour blue is definitely on trend. Even the American colour institute Pantone named "CLASSIC BLUE", a deep shade of blue reminiscing the sky at night, as the new Pantone Color of the Year 2020.

The shades of blue reach from the endless expanse of the sky to the unfathomable depths of the sea. Blue has a special effect on us humans too, because the colour evokes peace, harmony and serenity and we associate with it many positive associations. It stands for distance and infinity, for trust, relaxation and silence. At the same time, as the colour of water, it is also an energy source, promotes concentration and stimulates the zest for action.

Always on trend, the solpuri fabric collections offers beautiful shades of blue for its lounge and dining collections, inviting you to dive into the deep blue and to escape from everyday life.
